Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled...Principles To Live By Today

Location: Room 203

Teacher: Barbara Van Horn

Confidence can be hard to come by these days. People are losing their jobs, their houses, and their life savings at an unprecedented rate. Violence, natural disasters and moral depravity seem to be skyrocketing. In the midst of all this chaos, we need to know how then shall we live. We will examine 10 Biblical principles that will produce in us a confidence that cancels out the anxiety of the troubles in our life and world. Jesus says, “Let not your heart be troubled...”

GREATER WORKS: The Book Of ACTS

Location: Room C201 (Large Group)

Rooms 210, 211, 212 (Small Groups)

Teacher: Bev Brown and Shelley Lane

Before Jesus goes to the cross, He tells His disciples that they will do “greater works” than He has done. Then after His death and resurrection, He ascends to the Father with these words: “And now I will send the Holy Spirit, just as my Father promised. But stay here in the city until the Holy Spirit comes and fills you with power from heaven.” (Luke 24:49)

The Holy Spirit led the first Christians to do unexplainable things, to live lives that didn’t make sense to the culture around them. Do you ever wonder if you can live a life empowered by the Spirit? A life that is Spirit filled instead of Spirit empty? There’s more of the Spirit than any of us is experiencing. Let’s pursue our relationship with the Holy Spirit, asking Him for more...

We will meet in C201 beginning Tuesday, September 7th at 6:30 p.m. for large group in-depth teaching with Bev Brown and Shelley Lane and worship led by Loyce Pickett. Then on alternating Tuesdays, we’ll meet in small groups with emphasis on abiding in the Word, fellowship, and prayer with Stacy Baugh, Jennifer Robertson, Rebekah Russ, Christy Shows, Carolyn Stone, Jennifer Tinker, and Cynthia Tolleson.

Jonah: Navigating a Life Interrupted

By Pricilla Shirer

Location: Room C201

Teacher: Joy Pickering

Interrupted lives-probably an accurate descriptor for all of us, don't you think? Interruptions, they come in all size and shapes, all colors and shades good and bad. Though we wish to avoid them, every season of life seems to include a few sometimes on either end of the same day. As we're coming up for air from the devastation of one a fresh and exciting interruption takes our breath away, challenging us with new responsibilities, leaving us feeling inadequate and outmatched. They shock us, they shake us, they compel us to change, and sometimes they make us wonder if God even cares.

So, welcome to Jonah! He knows how a life interrupted feels, and he's got a firsthand account of how yielding to God is the best decision after all. Join us on a journey of getting to know Jonah. We are going to have a "whale" of a time.

Here and Now.....There and Then

By Beth Moore

Location: Room 214

Teacher: Jo Jo White

This is a series on the book of Revelation. Beth presents many points of view, allowing women to decide for themselves when the interpretation varies among scholars. She teaches that God is as specific about what He does reveal as He is about what He does not reveal.

Begins Sept 9th

The Gospel of Matthew

Location: The home of Ann Payne 1601 North Waterview, Richardson, TX

Teacher: Ada Hall

Our study begins at the point in Jesus' life that He has set his face toward Jerusalem in order to carry out His Father's will to save mankind from their sin. Our verse by verse study commences in Chapter 19 as Jesus continues His ministry of teaching, preaching and healing. He encounters the disapproval of the Pharisees and Sadducees which leads to His death on the cross. There will be opportunity for questions, clarification and referencing to other biblical material. Personal study of other related scriptures and the application of its teachings to our daily lives will be encouraged along with time for personal prayer requests.

Ephesians, Real Power For Daily Life

Location: The home of Barbara Van Horn
2022 Flat Creek Drive. Richardson, TX

Teachers: Frances SoRelle and Barbara VanHorn

In the first century, one of Asia Minor's key cities, Ephesus, was awash with idolatry, paganism, occultism and materialism. Sound familiar?

In this study we will examine the key points of Paul's letter to the Ephesian Christians. We will revisit dramatic public events and supernatural power struggles endured by our Christian ancestors. Our goal is to emerge from this study with a better grasp of fundamental truths about spiritual darkness, redemption, right relationships and godly living in today's challenging world.

We plan to dig deeply into God's Word, engage each other, and relate biblical teachings to our lives with the intention of bringing clarity to what it means to be a victorious Christian in this century.
