

The Heights ENGAGE 1000

ENGAGE Page

I really want to participate in ENGAGE 1000, but I have small children!

→ This is one of the most frequent things we hear as people inquire about participation in ENGAGE 1000. Listen to the experience of one who has walked this road...

YOU ARE NOT TOO YOUNG

You are not too young to participate in Engage 1000. My regular day to serve the homeless lunch at Cornerstone just happened to be during Spring Break. My daughter, Robin and her two sons, Jason age 9 and Tyler age 4 ½, would be here during this time so we decided to make this project a family affair. Jack went to take a few pictures and help me serve the guests, and Robin, Jason, and Tyler would help too. God worked out for us to have the perfect jobs to accommodate each of us. Tyler handed the plate for Brenda to start plating the food, Jason added the roll to the full plate and handed it to Candy so she could put it on the tray ready to serve. By having the boys perform their task during the sermon time kept them occupied and quiet! I know the guests for lunch enjoyed Jason and Tyler and all of us were able to be a witness of God's love and to be His hands and feet. Pam Hess

Look for this "Family Friendly" icon in the ENGAGE 1000 Ministry Opportunity Packet. The ENGAGE 1000 Ministry Opportunity Packets are available at the ENGAGE Center in the Atrium.

Bukhair Spring Fling May 2, 2009

Sign up or get more information in your ABF or at the ENGAGE Center in the Atrium.

GO&BE is an all church service project held three times a year!

1000 Heights family members serving in relationship-driven, transformational ministry in our community by the end of 2010.