

The Other 166

There are 168 hours in a week. If you are investing about an hour in corporate worship and an hour in a Bible Fellowship each week, what are you doing to connect with Jesus THE OTHER 166 hours until we meet again? Here are some suggested Scriptures to read, prayers to pray, and questions to ponder that relate to our time together today.

Scripture chapters referenced in today's sermon:

Luke 21:5-36, Romans 11:25-27, Genesis 18:18, Revelation 6:12-17, Revelation 7:1-4, Revelation 7:9-14

Prayer Focus:

"Lord God almighty, open my heart and enlighten by the grace of thy Holy Spirit, that I may seek what is well-pleasing to thy will; direct my thoughts and affections to think and to do such things as may make me worthy to attain to thine unending joys in heaven; and so make me worthy to attain to thine unending joys in heaven; and so order my doings after thy commandments that I may be ever diligent to fulfill them, and be found meet to be of thee everlastingly rewarded."
— Bede, 675-735

Questions to pray about and ponder:

1. Jesus, what is the noisiest part of my life?
2. Jesus, when was the last time I heard your voice?
3. Jesus, what was the last thing I heard you say to me?
4. Jesus, in what ways might I need to turn down the volume of noise in my life?

Scriptures to read and reflect upon this week. As you read, reflect upon these three questions:

1. God, what did You teach me from this passage in the sermon?
2. God, what do You want to say to me from this passage today?
3. God, is there something you want me to do in response to what I have just read?
